

Welcome

Workshop on Watershed Assessment and
Adaptive Management

Center for Healthy Communities
Los Angeles
November 13th, 2006

Southern California Regional Workshop on Watershed Assessment and Adaptive Management

Morning

- 9-9:30 Using watershed assessment in adaptive watershed management – Fraser Shilling (UC Davis)
- 9:30-10 Watershed water quality and runoff – Larry McKinney (Orange County)
- 10-10:30 Storm-water infiltration – Suzanne Dallman (LASGRWC)

Break

- 10:45-11:15 Assessment in restoration and management (IRWMP) – Hector Bordas (LA City)
- 11:15-11:45 Developing conceptual models and environmental indicators performance measures – Fraser Shilling (UCD)

Lunch and Conversation

Field visit to The Cornfield. Discussion of the role of restored urban spaces in watershed processes.

Southern California Regional Workshop on Watershed Assessment and Adaptive Management

Afternoon

- 2-2:20 Upland, riparian, in-stream, and wetland habitat assessment – Sabrina Drill (UC Cooperative Extension) and Betty Fetscher (Southern California Coastal Water Research Program)
- 2:20-3 Water quality and General Planning – Krista Slonowski (Brown & Caldwell)
- 3-3:30 Implementing an Integrated Ambient & Compliance Monitoring Program for the San Gabriel River Watershed – Suzanne Dallman (LASGRWC)

Break

- 3:45-4:15 Effective ties between academia and municipal government to maintain watershed management – Susan Zaleski (Sea Grant/WALUP) and Nancy Steele (Los Angeles San Gabriel Rivers Watershed Council)
- 4:15-4:45 History of Multi-Purpose Parks Advocacy in LA – Robert Garcia (City Project)